

Toddler Teacher General Studies Job Description

Ohr Torah Cincinnati is very excited to be expanding and is looking for a talented individual to help lead and teach children in the toddler program (ages 21 months-3 years old) room. The principal duties of the Toddler Teacher include: develop lesson and activity plans while creating a calm, caring environment, carry out activities on a daily basis and evaluate the effectiveness of child development activities, ensure the safety and well-being of the children, maintain regular communication with parents, and contribute to the effective operation of the overall education of our school. We are in search of a teacher with co-teaching experience who has a passion and commitment to the Montessori philosophy.

We seek candidates who understand the role of teacher as a facilitator of student inquiry and the importance of a carefully prepared learning environment.

Responsibilities include, but aren't limited to:

- Developing classroom work materials, preparation, planning academic activities, responsible, reliable, tending to the needs of the students and keeping the children safe during the school day.
- Must be skilled in preparing and maintaining an emotionally responsive, nurturing, accepting, and safe classroom environment that provides both independent and social learning that meets the varying needs of the students.
- Plan and implement the Toddler Montessori curriculum, developing classroom work materials, creating a prepared environment that actively engages the children.
- Plan and work collegially with Co-Teacher in best practices with this age group, model those practices and/or plan and work with Early Childhood team.

Qualifications:

- A distinct fondness for very young children that will cherish and care for them
- Model what is expected of our students ethically, academically and socially
- Demonstrate a commitment to lifelong learning
- Possess the skills, knowledge, and confidence to be an innovator and collaborator
- Bachelor's degree
- Montessori experience necessary, Montessori certification preferred, 3-5 years teaching experience

- Must have experience and be knowledgeable about Early Childhood development and education
- Enthusiastic about working with small children in a mixed-age classroom
- Strong classroom management skills
- Energetic, responsible and professional
- A collaborative work ethic with excellent oral and written communication skills
- Comfortable and confident in communicating with parents and caregivers

If you would like to be part of our dynamic teaching team, please send your resume and cover letter to: kpinkert@ohrtorahcincinnati.org.