
OHR TORAH CINICNNATI

Full Time Lower Elementary (6-9 years) Montessori Lead Position

WHO ARE WE?:

An Ohr Torah education is a gift of growth that will empower and inspire your children to shine throughout their lives! At Ohr Torah, meaningful accomplishments each year lay the foundations for success in the next year and beyond. We see children building themselves into incredible, responsible, positive future leaders. For us, there is no greater job and no greater joy than children reaching new heights in their learning, in their connections, in their confidence, and in their process of becoming!

POSITION SUMMARY:

Ohr Torah Cincinnati is interviewing Montessori-credentialed (AMS, AMI, MACTE) candidates for a full-time lead Lower Elementary teaching (6 years - 9 years) position beginning October/November 2020. The ideal candidate has experience working in a Montessori Lower Elementary classroom, and is exemplary in their application of the Montessori methodology, preparing the environment to meet students' needs and interests. The ideal candidate will be growth-oriented, possessing strong teamwork skills, and have a naturally joyful, energetic, and engaging demeanor. The candidate should be ready to thrive in a teamwork environment as well as be capable of preparing a differentiated Montessori curriculum in an inspiring way. Candidates should be creative, energetic, positive/upbeat, warm and nurturing personality, and strong organizational and multi-tasking skills.

Essential Qualifications

The needs of this position are the ability to communicate with effectiveness, both orally and in writing, with all stakeholders (children, parents, co-workers and administrators). We desire a candidate that has been trained or open to being trained in Orton Gillingham method. If you are excited about being part of our team, we want to meet you! We are a growing school that is cutting-edge in the Jewish-Montessori world. We are seeking world-class educators who are looking to bring their dedication, commitment and creativity to our wonderful students. Your work will have an impact, not only on the children within our school, but beyond as we make an important mark on the growing Jewish-Montessori movement across the world!
