

The Miami Montessori School in Troy, Ohio, is searching for a lead teacher at the Lower Elementary level for the 2026-2027 school year and beyond. Well equipped with a full complement of quality Montessori materials, The Miami Montessori School has served students in Ohio's Miami Valley since 1979. Situated in a small community twenty minutes north of Dayton, the school is housed in a building specifically designed for Montessori instruction. Come here to work in an authentic Montessori learning environment with engaged children from all over the region and the world. Stay for the small town atmosphere and low cost of living.

Position Description

We are looking for an individual who:

- is committed to the education of young children and dedicated to the Montessori philosophy.
- can create an environment that helps students meet their full potential and encourages a love of learning.
- fosters independence and curiosity in children and allows students freedom within limits.
- has keen observation skills to guide students to appropriate activities that meet their interests and learning needs.
- models kindness and respect for others.
- communicates with parents in a professional, non-judgmental manner.
- can collaborate with and support staff members.
- maintains confidentiality of records, parent/child matters, and school business.

Position Requirements

- Job type: Full-Time (academic year); includes health insurance, paid time off, tuition discounts, and professional development opportunities.
- Requires bachelors degree.
- Must have appropriate Montessori credential.

To apply, please send resume and cover letter outlining your educational background, experience, interest, and exposure to Montessori methods to SHARONPRAIS@AOL.COM.
